

consciousness / science / reincarnation /

an open dialogue with

ZaChoeje Rinpoche
Emaho Foundation

Stuart Hameroff, M.D.

Director
Center for Consciousness Studies University of Arizona

moderated by Farzad Mahootian, Ph.D.
ASU School of Letters & Sciences

- ❖ Consciousness in Tibetan Buddhism and modern science and philosophy
- ❖ Nothingness – The fine grain of reality in meditation and space/time geometry
- ❖ Discrete conscious moments in Buddhist meditation and electrophysiology
- ❖ The “observer” in Buddhism, quantum physics and consciousness
- ❖ Reincarnation and scientific plausibility

Wednesday, March 31, 4 – 6pm
Arizona State University
Discovery Hall, Room 350

[map at <http://www.asu.edu/tour/tempe/discvry.html>]

Please RSVP to: ai_csppo@asu.edu presented by Alternative Imaginations an intellectual space at Arizona State University's Consortium for Science, Policy & Outcomes that seeks to cultivate complementary perspectives on science and technology to address inequality, ecological harmony and sustainability.

Sponsored by ASU's Consortium for Science, Policy & Outcomes and Institute for Humanities Research.

cspo.org/projects/ai/